Description

Hi ,
Color management has improved greatly since version 2.6 . It is now possible to load more sophisticated color table than that provided by default. I created one with 15 intensities (from lightest to darkest) by hue . Since QGIS displays the colors in a table of ten columns , I purposely left gray boxes for the good order . Ideally , it could be shown in 15 columns (with some modifications).
It would be interesting to include it or an equivalent in the next version of Qgis.
