

QGIS Application - Bug report #10460

label field disappear when doing "Apply" in label settings of layers properties

2014-06-04 08:06 AM - Regis Haubourg

|   |               |                               |            |
|---|---------------|-------------------------------|------------|
| Status:  | Closed        |                               |            |
| Priority:  | High          |                               |            |
| Assignee:  | Larry Shaffer |                               |            |
| Category:  | Labelling     |                               |            |
| Affected QGIS version:   | 2.2.0         | Regression?:           | No         |
| Operating System:  |               | Easy fix?:             | No         |
| Pull Request or Patch supplied:  | No            | Resolution:            |            |
| Crashes QGIS or corrupts data:   | No            | Copied to github as #: | 18872      |
| Description  |               |                               |            |
| When testing labeling settings from layers properties dialog, choosing a field for lableing, and clicking apply reset the field choice to nothing. This does not happen in standalone labeling window |               |                               |            |
| Related issues:  |               |                               |            |
| Related to QGIS Application - Bug report # 10340: Clicking "apply" causes the...  |               | Closed                        | 2014-05-24 |

History

#1 - 2014-06-04 12:44 PM - Larry Shaffer

- Status changed from Open to Closed

Duplicate of #10340. Closing.