Description

The labeling's priority slider is broken when set through the style dock's live update.

Steps to reproduce

1. Create a new project, add a vector layer
2. Open the style dock, activate labeling
3. Go to the labeling's position tab, and change the priority slider
4. Don't hit [apply], close the style dock
5. Re-open the style dock, you'll notice the priority slider is reset back to the default value
