Description
In the attribute table, If the user starts a multi edit mode session while in table view, when he turns it off, the attribute table will end up in Form view instead. I think the right UX behaviour would be for the multi edit mode to remember the view mode the user was using before. anim.gif This affects both master and QGIS 2.18.
