Description
open a raster layer properties dialog, Transparency tab In the custom transparency options, there's a "Add values from display" button. Clicking on it brings to the map canvas so that you can click inside and brings you back to the dialog but nothing is added to the list. I don't know what it's supposed to render but I'm not sure that's the expected behavior. I'm on windows 10, in case...
