Description

I run a python plugin, unfortunately, it causes qgis app crash.

wanna see the log messages, but the crashed window overlap it. It can't switch from the message tab to python error tab is it bug ?, or is there a way to let me see the python error message

If you run debugview (https://docs.microsoft.com/en-us/sysinternals/downloads/debugview) the python error will be logged to the debug window.
