Pushed to next release - as this is a new feature being asked for.

Luca,

As of yesterday SVN, printing to pdf is fully functional now! There is no button that does it all for the user, but its's easy enough anyway: in the print dialog check "Print to file" and specify the path to the PDF file to print to. Make sure to add "pdf" extension. If you want postscript add "eps" or "ps" extension instead.

Does that solve the issue for you? Can the ticket be closed?

- Resolution set to fixed

- Status changed from Open to Closed

Closing this as it is now implemented by Qt. (see Maciek's post above)
