Description
In Vector properties, categorized and graduated styles, if I click on New color ramp..., then cancel, I cannot get the popup again (I click again on New color ramp..., but nothing happens). From Alister: If after cancelling you select an existing colour ramp before clicking on "new color ramp" again, it works. I think the bug is actually that when you cancel "new colour ramp" stays selected. What should happen when you cancel is that the previously selected colour ramp should be selected. Confirmed on Debian and Windows, current trunk (thanks Anita)
