Description
Within the current QGIS Print Composer, there are only the options to use a line grid or cross grid symbol. I believe that there should be at least an option for a circle/point option and adjustable size. For map production gridlines can be too heavy and cross-hairs are too distracting, in some scenarios it is preferable to use a point grid (5pt/6pt) - this option is not currently available.

I think a few more options should be added apart from what its proposed, currently only zebra option and another I cant recall. I think having a few more presets would be useful

- File DotMarkers.png added

Is a point grid like in the attached file?
